General Wu, of Heilungkiang, commanding the Fifth Fengtien Army, will attack Kailu today, where, it is said Marshal Wu Pei-fu has concentrated large forces.

Chihli troops numbering 3,000 at Kailu are stated to have made overtures for surrender.

(Eastern News Agency)

Hankow, Sept. 20.—Marshal Wu Pei-fu having commandeered 400 waggons of the Peking-Hankow Railway, passenger-trains on the same line are being daily delayed owing to shortage of trains.

(Eastern News Agency)

Hankow, Sept. 20.—The Second Mixed Brigade of the Hupeh troops has been ordered by the Peking Government to guard the Peking-Hankow Railway. Accordingly, the Brigade is expected to proceed to Honan before long.

(Eastern News Agency)

Mukden, Sept. 21.—This afternoon, the General Headquarters of the Fengtien troops published the following announcement:

The 4th echelon of the Fengtien troops under Li Hsuan-kai had a severe fight with part of the 13th Chihli division in the district of Shinglung. The 5th echelon was rushed up to the front to reinforce the 4th echelon yesterday at 4 p.m. The 6th echelon, comprising one artillery regiment, headed by Ma Jui-yun, has ranged field-guns on the line to the west of Nanling and is now engaging vanguards of the Chihli troops. General Li Ching-lin, Commander-in-Chief of the Second Fengtien Army, proceeded to the front yesterday at 5 a.m.

The Fengtien troops have established their fortress headquarters in Newchwang in order to prepare against a probable attack by either the Chihli fleet or aeroplanes. Dtvb

Peking, September 22.—According to independent reports from Shanhaikwan the Government troops on September 21 came into contact with the Fengtien Advance guards. The latter retreated, while the former following up suffered some casualties from land mines and later came into touch with the main Fengtien advanced force at Wanchiatun, where artillery fire was exchanged until nightfall.

The Hsing Pao reports that General Li Ching-lin's Tenth Fengtien Brigade attacked Government forces in the region of Chaoyang on September 20, but were repulsed and driven back several miles.

Government preparations are continuing on a large scale which will require a considerable time to develop.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Mukden, Sept. 20.—It is reported that on the night of September 16, 3,000 Heilungkiang cavalry arrived at Taonanfu from Tsitsihar and left immediately for Tungliao. On September 19 three trains containing artillery and cavalry and Harbin Northern troops were reported to have passed south of Chinkiatun en route to Tungliao. Troops from the south of Supingkai are also reported to be in concentration at Tungliao.

A clash is expected near Kailu, where it is said that Marshal Wu Pei-fu has concentrated large forces. That they are large is doubtful owing to the difficult country.

Wealthy Chinese are gathering at Supingkai.

Marshal Chang Tso-lin's troops seem well-behaved and look healthy, but they are rather poorly equipped. The guns seen consisted of twelve 75-mm. field guns.

CHEN CHIUNG-MIN ADVANCES AS SUN MOVES TO NORTH

Forces Are Said To Be Only Five Miles From Shihlung

(Eastern News Agency)

Canton, Sept. 20.—Following Dr. Sun's departure for Shaokwan, the defence lines of the allied troops in the district of the East River have been greatly shortened. Taking advantage of the withdrawal of the troops belonging to Dr. Sun, General Chen Chiung-ming's forces there have begun to take the offensive and have already advanced as far as a point only five miles distant from Shihlung.

After occupying Chunla, General Chen's forces have made a further advance and their right wing at Lintsang is now being concentrated in Lunghuahsu while their left wing, consisting of the troops under the command of General Hung Chao-lin, has also advanced as far as Tansui with the apparent object of attacking Pingchao from the direction of Lungkang.

(Eastern News Agency)

Canton, Sept. 21.—With a view to raising military funds, Dr. Sun has requested the General Chamber of Commerce here to accommodate a loan of $1,000,000 in cash as well as to undertake to buy $2,000,000 worth of bonds, and the General Chamber of Commerce has agreed to the payment of $500,000. Simultaneously with his departure for Shaokwan, on the one hand earnestly requested General Chen Chiung-ming faction to attack Chekiang in order to render his assistance to General Lu Yung-hsiang of Chekiang, and on the other hand, ordered the constitutionalists troops stationed in the district of the East River voluntarily to retreat as far back as Sheklung. Yesterday, leaders of the constitutionalists troops, belonging to Dr. Sun's faction, such as Generals Yan Hsi-ming, Tan Yen-kai, Lin Chen-huan, and Hsu Tsung-chih in their joint names issued a declaration to the troops under the command of General Chen Chiung-ming, calling for the latter's final reflection and warning that if they should attempt to take the constitutionalist troops off their guard at this juncture, such an action would prolong war-disasters, for which they are held responsible.

(Eastern News Agency)

Wusih Contributes $160,000 To War Chest Of Kiangsu

City Sends Cakes And Buns To Curry Favor Of Militarists

(China Press Correspondence)

Wusih, Sept. 15.—Word was received here this morning from the I-hsing front to the west of the Taihu (The Great Lake) that about three hundred wounded soldiers belonging to the Kiangsu army were on the way here for treatment. There are several private hospitals owned by native physicians here in town. These hospitals have expected to take care of the wounded, but just at present there is a dispute on between them and the local branch of the Chinese Red Cross because although the Red Cross is said to have collected $14,000 it is unwilling to guarantee that these hospitals will be refunded the money spent in taking care of the wounded.

St. Andrew's Hospital of the American Church Mission is making arrangements to do what it can for the care of these men. A school building belonging to the mission is being taken over to give extra space.

When the war first began the military authorities of Kiangsu demanded that the city of Wusih should contribute $160,000 to the expenses of the campaign. The demand was refused, but the second demand came the other day couched in such terms that the wealthy men of the city did not dare to refuse any longer but collected the money and sent it along to the military.

In order to get into the good graces of the private soldiers of the Kiangsu army, who might be expected to sack Wusih in case of a rout, the city has been sending thousands of pounds of cakes and buns as a present to the men at the front.

Asquith Condemns Russian Treaty

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 21.—Mr. Asquith has added his voice to the condemnation of the Russian Treaty, in the course of a letter to a correspondent in which he especially condemns the projected loan as unprecedented in British history, while the Treaty generally settles nothing but leaves the whole future to a chapter of accidents. Mr. Asquith expresses the opinion that the relations between Britain and Russia cannot be put into businesslike lines or secured by adequate safeguards by "crude experiments in nursery diplomacy."

Commander Kenworthy, M. P. for Kingston-upon-Hull, in a speech in Hull said that Mr. Wheatley, the Minister of Health, had told him that the Russian loan would be of £30,000,000 spread over a period of five years.

Bitter Struggle On Huangtu Kiating Sector On As More Reinforcements Are Sent

Nine Prisoners From Kiangsu Camp Are Brought Here; Six Spies Including One Woman Also Taken Into Custody

BY TALBOT PATRICK

After a week-end in which the Chekiang troops on the Huangtu-Kiating sector were re-enforced by 2,000 troops and two more field pieces heavier than those they had used up to the last couple of days, heavy fighting broke out again at 6 o'clock last night.

The bitterest struggle took place on either side of Kiating where the troops sent up through the week end as well as the two thousand-odd men sent up the two days before had been concentrated.

Saturday night the Chekiang troops between Kiating and the railway line advanced several li, but early Sunday morning they were pushed back to their old lines. Sunday was quiet and firing Sunday night was only desultory. Saturday night nine Kiangsu prisoners were captured near Malu village, between Nanziang and Kiating after the bulk of their comrades had been killed early in the day were sent down to Shanghai and thence to Lunghua.

The same night, 500 men of the 15th Regiment, 3d Division, came from Kashing and were sent up to Nanziang by rail. From there they went on foot to Nanziang village and from that place by water and on foot to the sector between Nanziang and Kiating. Fifty-odd cases of field gun ammunition and nearly a hundred of rifle ammunition went to the same front, while smaller amounts were sent to Liuho.

WOMAN SPY SUSPECT

Sunday morning six persons suspected of being spies, one a woman, were sent down from the lines for examination at Lunghua. In the afternoon General Ho Feng-Lin went up to the lines and a bit later General Yang Ho Tsao came back from the front and went to Lunghua. General Ho stayed up the line all night. General Yang went back Monday to rejoin his troops.

Sunday night, 1500 more soldiers with two field pieces of approximately 4.7 inch caliber and a score of boxes of hand grenades were sent up to Nanziang and to the parts of the line on either side of Kiating, on one side forward of Malu village and on the other before Lotien. Five hundred of these were of the 4th Regiment, 4th Division and the 1,000 of the 1st and 3d Regiments of

Marine Staffs And Seamen Of Company Are Holding Off; Directors Hold Meeting

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Sept. 22.—The long-existing dissatisfaction among the office employees of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha with the management, to whose policy is attributed the present depression in the business of the company, culminated yesterday in the resignations of a large number of the company's office staffs throughout the world, among whom are many prominent persons.

What immediately led to the resignations was that in consequence of a written protest against the management, demanding the resignation of the President eleven of the prime movers were dismissed.

This morning the employees who resigned, among whom are the managers of the company's branch offices at Yokohama, Nagoya, Osaka, Kobe, Moji, Nagasaki, Bombay, Calcutta, Seattle, New York, and in London and the sub-managers at Hongkong, Singapore, Liverpool, Hamburg and Shanghai as well as many executives at the head office, issued a manifesto setting forth their grievances, in which they protested against the President, alleging that he attempted to consolidate his own position at the expense of the company's business by creating his own faction among the employees, thereby disturbing the traditional harmony of the administration.

The directors of the Company are holding a conference this afternoon to determine their attitude.

At present the marine staffs and seamen are holding aloof.

According to a member of the staff of the Eastern News Agency, the report that the sub-manager of Shanghai was a signatory to the manifesto was not in inches, but in feet, and, nor the sub-manager here offered to resign and, as far as the agency knows, only the managers of the Yokohama, Kobe, Osaka and Dairen offices have resigned.

It is anticipated that the directors will adopt a high-handed policy in handling the present situation and get rid of the dissatisfied executives once for all

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Mukden, Sept. 20.—Marshal Chang Tso-lin called a meeting at mid-day today at his residence. The meeting was attended by the British Consul-General; the American Vice-Consul; Mr. Fairley, the Chairman of the British Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Poole, of the American Association; Mr. Pratt, of the Y. M. C. A., and Dr. Young, of the Mukden hospital. Mr. Pratt and Dr. Young are the two missionaries who helped in the signing of the peace after the last Chihli-Fengtien war, which was done on board a British ship at Shanhaikuan.

Marshal Chang expressed his appreciation of the good treatment accorded to him by the foreign communities of Manchuria in the last few years. He reiterated that his protection would be adequate for all foreign residents and property as long as he held his position in Manchuria.

The Marshal stated that the enemy headquarters were now at Chinwangtao station, whence he asked all foreigners to leave as he would bomb the place. He also requested all foreign gunboats at Shanhaikuan and Chinwangtao to stand clear as he intended to bomb the enemy's gunboats at those places.

An American missionary has just been arrested at Telling for travelling without a passport and carrying literature with Marshal Wu Pei-fu's signature. He has been brought back to Mukden and handed over to the American Consul.

Marshal Chang Tso-lin has warned all foreigners to carry passports to avoid trouble. He says that he is fighting for his life and the security of Manchuria, and will take no half-measures.

London Paper Thinks Great Britain Will Terminate War Here

Believes Issue Lies Between A Fresh Stalemate And Chang's Comeback

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 21.—The issue in China, declares the Sunday Times, lies between a fresh stalemate and the establishment of Marshal Chang Tso-lin as virtual dictator of all China, which presents two alternatives foreshadowed by Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Ambassador in London, in an interview given recently to a representative of this same paper.

The Sunday Times refers to Japan's reluctance and America's hesitancy to mediate, therefore it seems that Great Britain alone among the Powers might essay a friendly initiative in the interests of China, the British Empire and the trading world at large. Her conduct would be neutral from a political standpoint, says the paper. If Great Britain does not move, none of the other Powers will move. The hope is expressed that the British Government is not merely watching events, but that it intends to seize the first opportunity to terminate the disintegrating and destructive process at the present time working throughout the whole of China.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Sept. 21.—Discussing the events in China, the Petit Parisien remarks that the opposing Generals have no tendency to xenophobia and that both Generals are equally concerned in watching over the interests of foreigners. The journal says that so long as her nationals are not injured France, while taking all precautions, will maintain an attitude of impartiality towards the conflict and confine herself to expressing a hope that one or the other of the contestants will carry the day sufficiently decisively to cause restoration of Chinese order and unity, thereby benefiting the commercial interests of France and the other Powers as well as those of China.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 22.—The Daily Telegraph, commenting on the events in China, says that if the dispute continues the position of the European Legations in Peking will soon become a matter of daily speculation, which ought not to be tolerated. This question, far more than nice estimates as to the movement of Kiangsu troops towards Shanghai, should decide the action of the British Government at the present moment.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Sept. 22.—The Echo de Paris hopes that whatever is the issue of the civil war in China, it will be prompt, so that Japan and America will be confronted with a fait accompli, and all thought of intervention on their part be removed.

Le Journal says that in view of Soviet intrigues in China, Japan's attitude, and anxiety in Washington, it wil be well to follow events in the Far East closely, as they are pregnant with grave possibilities.

LU YUNG-HSIANG'S NAVY FLOPS OVER TO CHI, SUN IS MADE CHEKIANG TULI

Five Of Six Shanghai Warcrafts Join With Nanking Fleet After Receiving Large Sum; Tupan Of Fukien Border Defence Is Appointed Super-Tuchun Of Fukien And Chekiang

The developments in the war situation on Sunday and yesterday:

Five of the six warships of the Shanghai Independent Navy went over to the Kiangsu side on Sunday morning, leaving but one gunboat, the Yungchi, to fight for the Chekiang cause on the sea.

Sun Chuan-fang, Tupan of Frontier Defence who penetrated into Chekiang from the South through the aid of Pan Kuo-kan, commander of the first division, was appointed Inspector-General of Fukien and Chekiang, also succeeding General Lu Yung-hsiang as Military Governor of the latter province by a presidential mandate.

Rumors of a three-day armistice were circulated on Sunday, but they were definitely denied by Lunghua Headquarters.

Lu Yung-hsiang's forces on the Huangtu and Liuho fronts are intact despite heavy bombardments on Sunday night. Troops of the Fourth Division under General Chen Yao-shan are reinforcing the Fukien veterans who have been fighting since the 3rd.

Mukden's Second Army has captured Shaoyang, taking 3,000 rifles and six field pieces. Kailu is assaulted by Tuchun Wu Ching-shun of Heilungkiang.

Jehol forces near Shaoyang have bagged a Fengtien airplane, Peking says.

While Admiral Ling Chien-chang, commander-in-chief of the Shanghai Independent Navy remains loyal to General Lu Yung-hsiang, five of the six warships stationed here since last October have joined with the Nanking fleet under Admiral Tu Shih-kwei upon the receipt of $160,000. Commander Chow Shao-jui, squadron leader, was the representative who made the negotiations with the Nanking Fleet, it is understood.

The cruiser Hai Shou, one of China's four biggest cruisers, three torpedo-boats and one transport formed the detachment which revolted against the Chekiang cause. Admiral Ling Chien-chang is still in Shanghai and is now devising means of strengthening the naval defence at Woosung and the Kiangan Arsenal despite the treachery of his former followers.

CHEKIANG LEADERS DEFIANT

In resisting the assumption of the Tuliship by General Sun Chuan-fang, Chekiang leaders through the vice-chairman of the Chekiang Constitutional Convention, Chu Fu-chang, have issued a circular telegram announcing the immediate convocation of the Administrative Council for the Enforcement of the Chekiang Provincial Constitution.

The text of the telegram follows:

"In the tenth year of the Republic (1921) the Chekiang Constitution was drafted by a special commission and was duly promulgated. On account of various difficulties, it has not yet been enforced.

"The political situation has become very critical at present and the public bodies of Chekiang are clamoring for the enforcement of the constitution in order to relieve the situation. Accordingly, we have wired to members of the Administrative Council, Messrs. Lu Yung-hsiang, C. T. Wang, Yu Yah-ching, Chu Ching-lan, Chen Kwan, Yi Huan-chang and Huang Fu to assume their office at once.

"Besides these gentlemen, there are Mr. Shen Ching-chien, who has resigned and Dr. Tsai Yuan-pei, who is now in France. The vacancies thus caused will be filled in accordance with law and the Administrative Council for the Enforcement of the Chekiang Constitution will be duly inaugurated. The reorganisation of all administrative bureaus will be carried out in accordance with the new Constitution and the Administrative Council is invested with this responsibility.

"Hereafter, no officials for the province can be appointed except in accordance with the provisions of the constitution and those who try to function contrary to the constitution shall be vigorously resisted by the Chekiang people".

Passengers who arrived here by the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway yesterday stated that the leaders in Hangchow are already split over the appointment of Sun Chuan-fang as Chekiang Tuli. One faction favors his coming to the Chekiang capital, while the other is vigorously opposed to his or another Northerner's penetration.

Mongolian Expedition Planned By Poles

(Reuter's Service)

into Hangchow to rule the province.

Chow Feng-chi, in charge of the military affairs of Chekiang, left Hangchow for Wenchiayien yesterday to call on Pan Kuo-kan, commander of the first division who is suspected of having invited Sun to come to Chekiang without resistance. Hangchow is quiet, but no one appears to look after the Governmental machinery.

FRONT LINE INTACT

On the Huangtu,-Kating-Liuho front, the Chekiangese are holding their own. At 9.30 p.m. Sunday night, Kiangsu renewed its attack on the left wing of the Chekiang army. For four hours, the battle see-sawed, both sides using heavy artillery and machine guns. Firing became less frequent yesterday morning. But shortly after noon, Kiangsu forces assaulted the Chekiang right wing and were repelled after two hours' of skirmishing, according to information given out by Lunghua.

Kating saw heavy bombardment yesterday at noon, according to a long distance telephone message from Nanziang. The occupation army under Yang Hua-chao responded effectively. Fighting continued throughout the day.

In the Liuho sector, the Chekiang men took the offensive since Sunday night when an advance of seven li was made, according to Lunghua headquarters. The Kiangsu invaders took up positions at Lutu and Chuohiahang. Occasional exchanges of shots were made round noon yesterday. Two companies of the sixth mixed brigade, under direct command of General Ho Feng-lin left for this sector yesterday while a regiment of General Chen Yao-shan's fourth division was despatched to the battle line last night. Fighting became intense late last night.

Dr. Sun Yat-sen, in a telegram to Marshal Tuan Chi-jui of Tientsin, complimented the latter upon the attitude which he has assumed in the present strife and told the former Premier and Anfu leader that he is resolute and will fight the Chihlites and remove the obstacles to Republicanism.

General Lu Yung-hsiang, yesterday appointed General Wan Ping commander of the third army. In a speech delivered in the presence of his aides and staff officers, General Lu ordered the utmost simplicity for his personal convenience here as, he said, he would proceed to the fighting front as soon as plans are completed.

With the exception of passenger cars, practically the entire rolling stock of the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway has been ordered to Shanghai by General Lu Yung-hsiang. The railway employes are also coming down here with the cars and locomotives.

According to reports received in Shanghai on Sunday in local missionary and Consular circles the town of Huchow, located just south of Lake Taiho and north of Hangchow was partially looted on Saturday, September 19 supposedly by soldiers belonging to the Chekiang Fourth Division under General Chen Yao-shan.

No details were given in the telegrams except that a portion of the town including some silk shops were looted, but that no foreigners were injured. The looting is supposed to have been done by Gen. Chen's soldiers on their way back to Shanghai from the Ishing front to join General Lu here in Shanghai.

The disorder in Huchow apparently caused alarm in other towns of Chekiang where missionaries are residing for one or two of the consulates here are reported to have received telegrams from mission stations making inquiry regarding the general situation in Chekiang following the departure of General Lu.

Huchow residents in Shanghai met on Sunday as a result of the report that their town on the Taiho Lake was looted on Saturday by retreating Chekiang forces. In as much as no definite confirmation could be obtained at that time, no action was taken by the meeting.

Reports from Chuchow on the Chekiang border indicate that there was constant warfare between Chekiang's own lieutenants as a result of the invasion of Sun Chuan-fang. Lack of intelligence of their forces was the cause of blind clashes between their own men.

Over 30 wounded were brought back from the front to Shanghai yesterday. One came from Liuho while the rest were all from Huangtu. Ten of these were seriously wounded and required operations.

On Sunday, the Red Cross Unit here made another official visit to Liuho under the direction of Dr. W. S. New, field director. The battle line remained unchanged, while a large number of houses were destroyed by fire. The mission hospital, formerly used by the Red Cross was riddled with bullet holes.

In view of the influx of wounded which now number over 1,000. Two more Red Cross Hospitals had to be established. The eleventh hospital will be the Canton Hospital in Chapei, capable of accommodating 100 wounded and the twelfth will be the Paulun Hospital with 80 more available beds.

It is reported that General Ho Feng-lin has dispatched troops to Pootung and a detachment will be stationed at Nga Fu Dong which is said to be an important passage to Woosung.

Beginning Sunday the Woosung Garrison is taking extra precautions. Steam launches and ferry boats have been warned to stop sailing an hour earlier than usual.

A Nanking aeroplane flew over Woosung, Sunday and dropped circulars advising the troops to surrender. The people were thrown into a panic by the appearance of the flying machine.

General Lu Yung-hsiang sent a circular telegram throughout the country yesterday, clarifying his purposes and restating his aims in the war. The gist of it is as follows:

"The war against Tsao Kun and his supporters is due to the people's wish to eradicate the national traitors and to uphold the people's rights." Recently Lu suggested the restoration of Chekiang to the Chekiang people, the telegram states, and as he has been on friendly terms with the people of that province during the last six years he had to remain in Chekiang. Subsequently, the telegram continues, he made an arrangement whereby his forces were sent to the battlefields while the Chekiang army remained behind to defend the frontiers of the province and to resist an invasion by Fukien and Kiangse. However, these forces were repeatedly defeated and important passes at Kongsan and Zangsan fell into the hands of the enemy. To remain at his point in Chekiang would obstruct his plan; therefore, he tendered his resignation and left Hangchow for Shanghai. His forces are at present courageous and brave, having often repelled the invaders although the latter have been increased considerably. The traitor Tsao, says the circular, is using the armies of several provinces in the war which has now lasted a fortnight but he has gained nothing. General Lu swears to sacrifice his life for the nation and will continue to fight; he will never change his attitude. He has restored Chekiang to the Chekiang people and will do the same with Kiangsu if he comes out victorious in this campaign.

Canton, Sept. 21.—The report that General Lu Yung-hsiang has deserted Hangchow has given great shock to various quarters here. It is reported that this afternoon, Dr. Sun will invite to the temporary General Headquarters at Shaokwan commandants of all the expeditionary troops as well as leading members in political circles in Canton, with the object of discussing with them to devise some counter-measures. In this connection, Dr. Sun is alleged to have declared that he was determined to take positive drastic actions to hold the Chihli faction in check even by resorting to some extraordinary means.

Hankow, Sept. 20.—The Hupeh Provincial Assembly has demanded from General Hsiao Yao-nan, Inspector-General of Hupeh and Hunan, the neutrality of Hupeh and has issued a circular telegram to all quarters concerned announcing the neutrality of Hupeh province. On the other hand, the General Chamber of Commerce of Wuhan yesterday held a mass meeting, at which a resolution was passed that a movement be started to prevail upon all the belligerent parties to put an end to the hostilities. It is expected that the General Chambers of Commerce in Wuhan, Shanghai, Peking, Tientsin, and other places will all act in concert for the peace movement.

The first American Red Cross unit arrived in Quinsan Sunday night, September 13, and were well received by the military and civil officials according to Dr. Warren H. Stewart who arrived in Nanking from Quinsan recently. "The magistrate and local gentry are according us every facility for our work of helping civilian refugees," he says. "The gentry have provided three refugee quarters in Quinsan for a contingent of 133 women and children who were brought by us on Tuesday from Anting, near the fighting front, through the cooperation of two Red Cross boats. The people in the fighting area are naturally panic stricken and have unavoidably suffered in many ways and there is urgent need of relief transportation and comfort for them. The unit is now trying to secure a motor boat from Shanghai to proceed to Taitsang, which is near the fighting lines, where conditions for the civilians are also very hard. Two other refugee centers have been provided in Quinsan, and another American Red Cross unit starts tomorrow from Nanking. We could have 500 refugees in Quinsan by the end of the week if we had facilities. Our work is limited to women and children and, so far, one injured man. It is hoped that as soon as the work is well established in Quinsan some of the experienced workers can go right over to I-hsing, from which place we have very strong appeals for help, many of the people having fled to the lines, where they are hiding, without food."

Tokio, Sept. 22.—The troubles of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha have become more extended and all the branch offices, including London office, have sent cables to the headquarters of the group of those who are united to resign, encouraging them to strengthen their union. Those who tendered resignations have reached 673 persons. Mr. Ito, the President of the company, had issued a lengthy statement to all the employees at home and abroad today explaining the reasons of the dismissal of a certain portion of the employees of the company and warning them not to act imprudently. It is reported that those who have sent in their resignations will also issue a statement soon.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha directors after a meeting this afternoon issued a statement explaining that the employees were dismissed as a disciplinary measure, because they attempted to interfere with the administrative affairs of the Company. The meeting decided to watch developments, and in the meantime attempt to reconcile the rebellious faction.

President Mr. Ito interviewed said that he deplored the trouble, which had been long existent, and declared that the authorities considered that the present was the time effectively to remedy the situation. He announced that he could not decide on his own action until harmony was restored.

Chinese Gets Two Years For Theft From Post Office

A theft from the Peking Road post office of a parcel containing a brick, placed on the counter by a Chinese constable as a temptation for the unwary, got a two-year sentence for a Chinese in the Mixed Court yesterday. C.P.C. 1219, who was on plain-clothes duty in the post office Sunday, made up the package and put it on the parcels counter. Zung Kwe-sung picked up the parcel, and was starting out with it when he was arrested. He appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday charged with larceny and with returning from expulsion, he having been convicted and expelled from the Settlement before.

Assessor Whitamore and Magistrate Loh, presiding, sentenced the man to two years' imprisonment, with re-expulsion at the end of it.

LIGGETT MYERS' NAME INVOLVED IN COURT CASE

Two Chinese Charged With Fraudulent Use Of Company's Title

The name Leggett Myers, apparently imitation of Messrs. Liggett and Myers, came into the Mixed Court yesterday in connection with the trial of two Chinese charged with obtaining goods under false pretences, using this name for the purpose.

The first case was that of Wong Ts-sung, a shop assistant, against whom there are two counts. The first is the obtaining of four dozen blankets, value $970, from a merchant on Szechuen Road, Wong pawning the blankets. He used the name of Leggett Myers to get the goods. Wong is also charged with obtaining by means of a worthless check five dozen leather wallets value $180, from another merchant.

In the Mixed Court yesterday Detective-Sergeant Papp, outlining the case, said the accused had admitted the first charge. The man had opened an office at No. 6 Siking Road under the names of Leggett Myers, Libbert Myers, Tiao Yoko, and Tah Mei Yang Hong. Wong was the compradore, it appears, of this bogus concern, and further charges are to be preferred against him. The manager of the firm was a Japanese who was also arrested, and who is being charged in the Japanese Consular Court here.

Wong said in Court yesterday that the Kwong Fong shop, to which the blankets were sent, was opened by the Japanese, and the accused was only his assistant. The case came before Mr. Martin, British Assessor, and Magistrate Loh, and was remanded for eight days for American Assessor Jacobs, in view of the fact that an American firm's name had been misused.

The other charge appears to have been quite distinct. The defendant, Tsang Ling-foo, tried to obtain three dozen felt hats value $70, from a merchant in the Central District last Saturday morning. The man appears to have used a card of the bogus concern, presenting it when getting the hats and asking that a shop assistant be sent with him to collect the money. He went with the assistant to No. 9 Kiangse Road not to the Siking Road office given on the card and there met another man, to whom, it appears, he gave the hats, and went with the assistant to the Hongkong and Shanghai bank for the money. There Tsang asked the assistant to wait outside, but the letter was suspicious and insisted upon accompanying the man, whereupon Tsang decided, his wits having failed him, to take to his heels, but the other nabbed him and turned him over to a Chinese constable.

Tsang also appeared before Assessor Martin and Magistrate Loh, and was remanded for eight days on the charge of fraud. He is to appear with the other defendant before American Assessor Jacobs.

Russian Children Are Arrested For Street Hawking Here

In response to the recent agitation for the turning over of destitute Russian children to the school for them here two little Russian girls appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday on a charge of street hawking. Torja Veronia, five years of age, and Nura Boornstoff, aged ten, were the two defendants. They were arrested Saturday morning on Nanking Road while selling sweetmeats and chocolates, and appeared in Court before Mr. Martin, British Assessor, and Magistrate Loh.

Sub-Inspector Dunne, outlining the case, said there was an application for the children to be sent to the Russian School for Destitute Children here. Letters had appeared in the papers recently about these children being on the streets, and they were really begging rather than hawking.

Assessor Martin asked the mother of the first child whether she had any objection to the little girl being sent to the school. The woman replied that she was very sick, and the child was her sole support. If she was sent to the school the mother would be helpless.

The Assessor said that the children were not to hawk on the streets. The case would be remanded for Mr. Ivanow on Friday, and the parents were to give a personal bond for the appearance of the children.

the 4th Mixed Division. All the men came from Kashing and were believed to have been brought there from still farther west.

Beside the two field pieces and the bombs, five machine guns, forty cases of field gun ammunition and a hundred of rifle ammunition were sent forward. The shipments of ammunition have for several days been far in excess of the consumption of even a normal day of heavy fighting, to say nothing of the comparatively quiet times existing of late with only local brushes between the two armies.

Signs that the warfare is expected to be protracted and that the concentration of troops on the Huangtu-Liuho front is not an empty gesture preliminary to making terms might be taken from shipments of field telephones and wire and other material sent up to the front yesterday. There have been no more shipments back from there like those a couple of days ago.

GENERAL HO AT FRONT

Monday, General Chwang Tse-ping went to the Liuho front from Lunghua. Hitherto, the general has given most of his attention to the Huangtu-Kiating section of the line and it is possible he has taken over the smaller front because of the presence of General Ho up the railway line to be personally in charge there.

Yesterday afternoon, two more machine guns, six cases of gun ammunition and several of rifle ammunition were sent up to Nanziang. Between thirty and forty wounded were sent back from that part of the line during the day, a few more than a score having been sent down Sunday.

A new occurrence in the wounded line was the arrival in Shanghai yesterday of several men who had been wounded on the Taihing front, west of Taihu lake. These men had first been taken to Hangchow and were brought on from that city yesterday. The trains to Hangchow resumed running Sunday and kept on running yesterday, following the stops of two days at Kashing after the change of General Lu's headquarters from Hangchow to Shanghai.

Reports from down the railway line are that already about 10,000 soldiers are at Kashing, Kashan, Sungkiang and other points on the line between Kashing and Shanghai ready to be sent wherever re-enforcements are needed by the Chekiang line between Chingpu and Liuho.

To date, there has been little fighting at Chingpu or, in fact, south of Huangtu village on Soochow Creek and the present concentrations near Kiating seem to forecast a Chekiang offensive there.

CHEKIANG ATTACK PLAN

From the early days of the war Chekiang leaders have cast their eyes toward Quinsan and stated as plan of getting there a circling movement from the vicinity of Kiating south to the railway line a little short of Quinsan. Whether such a move would be worth the losses it would probably incur is doubtful, but the Chekiang forces, both troops and leaders, seem to have an uncontrollable yearning Quinsanward. The one thing which makes this seem more sensible now than before is the movement to the front of guns which the Kiangsu people had kept emplaced at Quinsan until a few days ago to defend the crossing of the Henli. This may indicate a general weakening of the Henli defenses which would otherwise be far more formidable than the narrow creeks backed by trenches between Huangtu and Anting against which the Kiangsu and Chekiang forces have both battered in vain and at goodly cost of life.

Monday, two old women were sent to Lunghua from Liuho for examination as possible spies. It seemed to be the concensus of opinion that they would be shot, although the reported circumstances of their capture made them appear of doubtful guilt. It was said that the women were in a field close to the firing line picking cotton, as farmers do close behind the various sections of the Chekiang lines, and that when a burst of firing came the women huddled down and ran away. Soldiers, seeing the pair run, decided they had best be captured. An instinctive reaction, to pursue fleeing people, but one which seems rather inadequate cause for two deaths.

Gen. Wood Asks For Reversal Of Action In Liquor Import

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, Sept. 22.—It is unofficially stated that even if American Consuls continue to refuse bills of health to ships carrying liquor, the Philippine Local Customs will permit their entry with merely a nominal fine.

The present law provides a maximum fine of 2,000 pesos for vessels not provided with a bill of health, but no minimum is stated. It is believed that a nominal fine of ten pesos will be imposed where ship's failure to show a bill of health is due merely to presence of a liquor cargo.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, September 22.—Governor-General Wood has cabled to Washington requesting a reversal of the Consular action in regard to liquor imports to the Philippines.

Wedding

HUTCHINSON-PARKER

The wedding of Miss Mabel Lilian Parker, daughter of the late Mr. W. L. Parker of the Chinese Maritime Customs and Mrs. Parker, and Mr. William Hutchinson, Jr., of Shanghai, took place in the church of the Sacred Heart on Saturday afternoon, September 20.

The bride, who was given away by Mr. M. Stefanis, looked charming in a gown of Spanish lace trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Agnes Anderson, was dressed in lavendar georgette and wore a white poke bonnet. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The two little flower-girls wore frilled yellow georgette dresses. Mr. Claud Taylor was best man.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom at 35 Tongshan Road, where a large number of friends gathered to wish Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson every happiness. The young couple, who are very popular here, received many beautiful presents.

DE DOIS MEETS JOE SUZARA AT CARLTON

Clever Bantams Booked For Eight Rounds Here Thursday

The Carlton fight card for next Thursday, one of the best arranged for some time, has been further improved by the inclusion of a match between Faustino de Dios and Joe Suzara in the second event, in place of the Fernan-Peralto bout. Suzara is a clever featherweight, and has fought here before. In spite of his name, he is not a Filipino but a white boy, which is an added attraction to many of the fight fans here.

Suzara has been away from Shanghai for a while, and upon his return here recently decided to go into the ring again and show his stuff. He has had a couple of try-outs with Rufe Canion and others which show him to possess both cleverness and a punch, even more than previously, and he is expected to make a good match for de Dios.

As for Faustino, not much remains to be said that fight fans here don't know. He is one of the fastest and cleverest boys in the ring here, and is in splendid condition. The two will weigh in about even, de Dios at 123 pounds and Suzara probably a pound over, and are booked to go eight rounds.

The discovery was made yesterday that three clever fighters had "arrived" during the week-end on the President McKinley. Where they arrived is not specified, as the McKinley will not be here until the latter part of this week. Three good Filipino boys are however expected by this boat, Andrade, a lightweight, Folyano, a bantam, and Alberto, another bantam.

Felicani Winner Of Grand Handicap Cup Shoot Here

In the final shoot of the International Gun Club for the Grand Handicap Cup, presented by Maestro Paci and Mr. Pieraccini, which was carried to a successful close on Saturday afternoon in spite of the inclement weather, F. Felicani won handily. The wind and driving rain made good scores very difficult. Felicani had not only the highest total score, but his net score of 45 was also the best attained.

Results were as follows:

	Score	H'cap	Total
F. Felicani	45	8.00	53.00
R. Leng	53	13.30	50.30
R. W. Squires	43		43.00

SHANGHAI BALL TEAM MAY MAKE TOUR OF JAPAN

Manager Gallop Returns To Shanghai With Interesting News

Mr. H. B. Gallop, manager of the Shanghai baseball team and of the China Baseball Commission, returned from Japan on September 20 with the news that there are a number of ball teams there who would very much like to have the Shanghai team pay them a visit. A regular schedule could be laid out if the men could get away, and the tour would be of much interest. Manager Gallop also announces the official opening of the Pioneer Field here early next month.

While in Japan Mr. Gallop saw several Japanese baseball organisations who would like to have our team make a tour of Japan about the middle of October. If the local men could get away the trip could easily be arranged.

F. P. Bills, shortstop of the local team and joint manager with Mr. Gallop of the China Baseball Commission, is due in Shanghai today, prepared to play ball and to assist in the Commission's activities on the Pioneer Baseball Field.

The official opening of the Pioneer Field will take place on either the 4th or 12th of October. It is hoped that the game played for this opening will be the local club and the Dai Mai team from Japan. The Dai Mais are booked to play six games here on the new field between October 4th and 12th, but owing to the uncertainty of conditions caused by the war their series may be delayed a week or so. The field is now ready for use, however, and any local or Navy teams, American, European, Chinese or Japanese, who desire to use it for practice and games can secure the use of same by applying to either Mr. Gallop or Mr. Bills.

Two games will probably be played on the field this week-end, between the local team and the U. S. S. Huron, starting at 2.45 p.m., Saturday and Sunday. The following charges will be made. Grand stand and first base stand sixty cents Mex., third base stands thirty cents, outfield and stands ten cents. These are the charges the Commission hopes to stick to for most games. Even when outside teams are brought to Shanghai it is expected that the charges will not have to exceed $1.20, sixty cents, and thirty cents. These charges are very reasonable.

Players of the Shanghai team are requested to try and get in a little practice this week, around 5 p.m. daily. All facilities, such as showers, etc., have been installed at the field.

SIBERIAN TRIP MADE IN 17 DAYS

Journey Completed In Good Time With Comparative Comfort

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, September 18.—Messrs. Nystrom and Wright of Taiyuan University and Mr. A. Ramsay of Peking arrived here on Tuesday, having accomplished the Trans-Siberian trip in seventeen travelling days. Apart from difficulties experienced in one or two places in securing tickets and reservations, the journey was made in comparative comfort. Messrs. Nystrom and Wright have completed the double journey in approximately two months.

The possible cause of delaying an early return may be found in obtaining the Soviet transit vise. This difficulty can be overcome by paying for telegraphic communication with Moscow.

Indian Annoys Girl In Public Gardens; Arrested

Foraz Khan, the Indian who appeared in the British Police Court a few days ago charged with attempting the theft of the Consulate flag, was arrested in the Public Gardens on Sunday for molesting a young lady there, and appeared in Court again yesterday morning.

Foraz is a former member of the Hongkong police force, and appears to be somewhat lacking in his mental equipment. He was discharged last week by Magistrate King, who said he was not convinced that the Indian really intended to steal the flag. Detective-Sergeant Forkin, who examined the man, expressed the opinion that he was unbalanced mentally.

The charge for which Foraz appeared in Court yesterday was technically one of assault, the complainant being Miss Bessie Larsen. Miss Larsen was walking with her mother in the Public Gardens Sunday morning a little after eleven. Foraz, who was sitting there, according to the charge, got up from his seat and took the young lady by the arm. Mrs. Larsen shouted at the man, and he went away, sitting down on a bench again. The ladies went over and told the police of the incident, and Foraz was taken into custody.

In Court yesterday, when Foraz appeared before Magistrate King and an account given of the incident, the Magistrate said he hardly knew what to do with a man of this type. He remanded him for a medical examination to determine his sanity.

Murder Charge Against Chinese In Mixed Court

Sian Tsoong-yang, a brass-smith, appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday charged with murder, the alleged victim being one Tsiang San, who was called out of his house on Cihwang Road on the night of July 10 last and shot dead. Siau was arrested by the French Police in connection with another murder, but was found not guilty by them. He is said to have an alias of Loh Zeu-tsang.

The accused man came before Assessor Whitamore and Magistrate Li a week ago, and was remanded until yesterday for further inquiries. Mr. Maitland, prosecuting, and Mr. Covey, counsel for the defendant, both failed to appear when the case came up yesterday, being engaged in other Court, and the Court remanded the case until Wednesday.

Man Convicted For $3,000 Burglary On Nanking Road

The burglarising of the Asiatic Lace Company on Nanking Road Saturday night netted lace and jewelry to a value of $2,851, according to the statement of the proprietor, who appeared as complainant in the Mixed Court yesterday against Chen Pao, a former employee, charged with shopbreaking.

Detective-Sergeant Forkin stated in Court that the complainant had reported the burglary on Sunday, after coming to the shop and finding the property missing. Later the complainant brought Chen to the station himself, stating that as the man was a former employee he had suspected him and had gone to his home in Chapei and insisted upon searching the place finding all the missing property except about $30 worth. The accused man had admitted the charge, but as there were several pawn-tickets found in his possession with regard to other property thought to have been stolen, the Court was asked to grant a remand of a week for further inquiries.

Assessor Martin and Magistrate Loh, presiding, found the man guilty, and remanded him for one week as requested. The stolen property is to be returned to the complainant.

Chinese Gets Ten Years For Robbery; Japanese Victim

In connection with the highway robbery of a Japanese ship's officer, Captain Echigo of the s.s. Kumano Maru, on Point Road a few months ago, Tsiang Nye Mo-ts was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment yesterday by the Mixed Court, Assessor Whitamore and Magistrate Li presiding.

Tsiang appeared with two others, charged first with an armed robbery on Chaoufoong Road November 19 last, $50 having been stolen there. Eight persons were said to have taken part. There was no evidence against any of the accused, however, except the statement of one who had told the police when examined that he had been with the gang which did the robbing, but remained outside, receiving $2 as his share.

Only Tsiang was charged on the highway robbery charge. He was sentenced to ten years as mentioned, with re-expulsion at the end of it. The other two men were dismissed.

To Probe Defence Forces Before Adjusting Budget

(Reuter's American Service)

Washington, September 20.—Secretary Wilbur today visited the White House.

After seeing President Coolidge, Mr. Wilbur announced that the President had suggested the appointment of a special board to investigate the relative importance of air, submarine and surface craft in the Navy with a view to an adjustment of the Budget.

Secretary Wilbur denied that his recent speeches on the Pacific coast had been mentioned during the interview with President Coolidge, and declared that his remarks had been misrepresented by the newspapers. He asserted that his remarks were conciliatory towards Japan and that he had not said that they were antagonistic peoples in the Pacific but only that they were of opposing civilisations.

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Washington, Sept. 22.—President Coolidge has ordered Secretary Wilbur to furnish a report on the comparative values of naval airplanes, battleships and submarines for guidance in preparation for the revolving of the budget.

Burglary Charge Brings Chinese Into Mixed Court

Three men were convicted on a burglary charge yesterday in the Mixed Court. The burglary was at a house on Kungping Road September 1, where they stole a flower vase, a stone buffalo with stand, and three bottles of brandy, of a value of about $100. All three have had previous convictions, and two are charged with returning from expulsion. They were remanded until Wednesday for sentence.

A fourth man was arrested in the same connection, but was not found to have anything to do with the crime. He had had previous conviction for theft, however, and Detective-Sergeant Repas asked that he be expelled from the Settlement, in view of the present state of emergency. The Court gave the expulsion order as requested.

Tattooed Men Are Scared As Police Arrest Suspects

It isn't popular these days to have a tattoo mark on your arm.

For many years there has been in existence a secret organisation among the Chinese of a certain class, chiefly including barbers, waiters in restaurants and similar professions, which is supposed to be a crude and primitive brand of Masonary. The organisation is known as the "Siu Hua Hui" or Tattooed Men's Society and originally was a sort of self-help organisation or guild. Members in destitute circumstances could get help and when members died they were assured of a respectable funeral and burial.

In recent years the organisation is said to have come under certain political domination and since the beginning of the war the police of Nantao and foreign settlements have been on the lookout for members suspected of political activities and deporting them to the native city.

Since however the habit of tattooing is a common practice and not restricted to members of this society many other Chinese in Shanghai are now in difficulties. One chauffeur employed by a foreigner in the French Concession who happened to have a mark on his arm became so frightened that he held his arm against the flame of a lighted candle until he burned his skin so severely that he had to be sent to a hospital for treatment and another Chinese, a house-boy who also had a mark on his arm, became so frightened that he had a nervous break-down and also had to be sent to a hospital.

Seventh-Day Adventists Inaugurate A New Church

The Seventh-day Adventists of Shanghai have just opened a new church on Range Road. The opening service was held at 10:30 a.m. on September 20. The land and buildings represent an expenditure of nearly Tls. 60,000. The seating capacity of the auditorium is about 500.

The opening of this new church happens to come just at the time when Seventh-day Adventist churches throughout the world are celebrating their jubilee year of foreign missionary endeavor. Fifty years ago, this September, the Seventh-day Adventists in America sent their first representative across the seas. Rev. J. N. Andrews left at that time for Switzerland. The membership of the denomination in North America was then only 7,000, literature was being printed in English only, and but three small periodicals were being published. One training school was being conducted and the whole denominational investment was but $38,712.53, U. S. currency, an amount insufficient to erect one such church property as has just been completed here in Shanghai 50 years later.

This denomination has had a remarkable growth. Today it is carrying on work in 115 countries. The working force has continued to increase until in 1921, when the last complete statistical report was compiled, there were 14,389 evangelistic and institutional workers carrying forward their work in a total of 194 languages.

This church has laid much emphasis upon the importance of the printed page. From a beginning of one small publishing house 50 years ago, with an output of three periodicals and a few small books and pamphlets, this branch of denominational activity has grown to a total of 51 publishing houses and branches, which have a total investment in up-to-date machinery and other equipment of $4,221,575.72, U.S. currency. 154 periodicals in 114 different languages are now being printed by these publishing houses. Their publishing house at 25 Ningkuo Road, Shanghai, has the distinction of publishing the most widely religious magazine in all China, sending out more than 40,000 copies of this magazine a month. Contributions for the work of the church have increased by leaps and bounds. During the 10 years from 1912 to 1922, the offerings of the church members for foreign missions totaled $17,583,760.91, U. S. currency, while the contributions for all purposes during that decade amounted to $62,590,778.53, or a per capita of $39.96 each year. During the past three years nearly $400,000 a year has been appropriated to the work in China.

Sanitariums and hospitals have been established in the United States, England, Canada, South America, Australia, India, China, Japan, Korea, Norway, Sweden, and Africa. Each year more than 200,000 patients are treated. Dr. A. W. Truman, the medical secretary of the denomination, says that only shortage of funds prevents the establishment of many more such institutions in response to the urgent appeals which are coming from all sides.

It was in 1874, the year when the first representative was sent to a foreign country, that Seventh-day Adventists opened their first training school. Today they are operating five colleges, six junior colleges, three seminaries, 53 academies, and 672 elementary schools, with a total enrolment of 22,600 students. These schools are scattered throughout the United States, in the African wilds, in the jungles of India, in Japan, Manchuria, South America, China, Europe and Australia. Of these schools, China has one junior college, eight intermediate schools, and 93 primary schools, with an enrolment of 3,721 students. According to Prof. W. E. Howell, secretary of the Educational Department, "the aim of these schools is to develop the spiritual life, train for service to mankind, and equip for the practical duties of everyday living."

Though work did not begin in Europe until just 50 years ago, it is now being carried on in every country in that continent. The latest figures indicate a membership of 67,500.

Such a remarkable work is being done for the Indians of Peru, Ecuador, and Bolivia that mention of it is constantly being made in the newspapers. A leading newspaper of Guayaquil, Ecuador, says that the efforts of the Adventists "are for the education and redemption of the Indian race, and that their activities include the teaching of the Indians to read and write and giving medical aid to the suffering, all of these services being absolutely gratis."

In speaking of the purpose of this denomination, C. K. Meyers, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, says: "We are trying to hasten the work of God on earth. Fifty years ago we began in obscurity, poverty, and weakness, by sending out our first representative, and now, under the blessing of God, our missionaries are in nearly every land. Our work is known by the people of every land, and an increasing support is yearly given by friends of our cause.

"With convictions born of a study of the sure word of prophecy, we have declared that the plan of God will be quickly consummated even in this generation."

British Seaplane May Not Participate In Schneider Cup

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 20.—The question of sending a British seaplane to take part in the race for the Schneider Cup at Baltimore may have to be reconsidered in consequence of an accident to the Air Ministry's high-speed research seaplane, built by the Gloucestershire Aircraft Company and fitted with a Napier-Lion engine.

On a preliminary trial at Felixstone, after a promising flight, the seaplane sank in the harbor owing to an apparent failure of the under-carriage. The pilot was rescued.

Eleven Robbers Executed Here By Order Of Gen. Ho

Eleven men were executed at Loonghwa yesterday by order of General Ho Feng-lin, after having been found guilty of the crime of armed robbery.

Two of the men were arrested by the Paoshan City Magistrate's yamen for robberies committed in that district, while the other nine were arrested by the Shanghai Municipal Police and found guilty of armed robbery in connection with the theft of a large number of Government Debenture bonds which were stolen from an employee of the Tung Yih Trust Company, the robbery of the Zau Van Sun Grocery Store on Nanking Road and other robberies.

League's Plenary Sittings Resumed; Drafting Of Pact On Security Is Difficult

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 21.—A Geneva telegram dwells upon the difficulties in the drafting of the Security Pact. It says that it is now generally felt that the Pact when it comes to be submitted to the Assembly will be far less sweeping than was hoped after the speeches of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald and M. Herriot at Geneva. The small Delegations are uneasy and declare that Britain and France are running the show. They are dissatisfied with the Benes project. The opposition of the British Dominions to it also is causing great anxiety in League circles. It seems impossible that the project can be introduced before the beginning of October.

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Geneva, Sept. 20.—The subcommittee of the League of Nations has agreed on the disarmament protocol, which it will present to the assembly next week. It intends to recommend the holding of a disarmament conference next June, if 15 nations will sign the protocol.

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, September 21.—There has benn much comment on the sudden departure of Dr. Nansen for Germany in the middle of the work of the Assembly. It is not believed that Dr. Nansen has been entrusted with the mission of trying to induce Germany to apply for admission into the League, but that he is acting entirely on his own responsibility. The wisdom of continuing to press Germany to enter the League is questioned here.

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, September 20.—After seven days of committee discussions, chiefly on the subject of disarmament, the plenary sittings of the Assembly of the League of Nations resumed today.

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Geneva, Sept. 22.—The British Delegation has semi-officially denied having made any offer or promise to use the British fleet in enforcing the League arbitration during the drafting of the disarmament resolution.

CHINA THREATENS TO WITHDRAW IF NOT RE-ELECTED

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, September 20.—In pursuance of a resolution of the Chinese House of Representatives, the Chinese Government has telegraphed from Peking to the Chinese delegation to the League of Nations instructing it to press the re-election of China to a seat on the Council of the League. The telegram points out that of the six non-permanent seats on the Council four go to Europe, two to South America and none to Asia, and that Parliament has further decided that China should withdraw from the League of Nations if she is not re-elected.

CHINA'S DELEGATE ASSURES GENEVA OF COOPERATION

Mr. Chu Chao-hsin Welcomes Suggestion Of Anti-Opium Propaganda

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, September 20.—On the adoption of the report on opium traffic, Mr. Chu-Chao-hsin (China) assured the Assembly of the League of Nations of China's co-operation against opium and welcomed the suggestion of propaganda in all countries where opium traffic was a serious factor.

A Chinese proposal was submitted to the Assembly recommending the consideration of China's claim to a seat on the Council.

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Geneva, September 21.—The League's Assembly has adopted a resolution, expressing regret and dissatisfaction over the inability of China to regulate and establish the precise extent of poppy cultivation.

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, September 21.—In the course of the debate on the report of the Advisory Committee on Opium Traffic, Mr. Chu Chao-hsin, the Chinese delegate, refuted statements that cultivation of poppy was universal in China. He quoted a statement, which he ascribed to Reuter, that a Chinese Governor had enforced the death penalty on all persons found in possession of four ounces of narcotic drugs. Mr. Chu added that China had laws prohibiting opium traffic in any form and would be able to enforce them to the utmost when the Central Government regained control of all the provinces. Public opinion in China strongly supported the anti-opium movement and China supported honest propaganda. "We promise you goodwill and unreserved support in the movement of combating in the name of humanity this evil of worldwide concern." (Applause).

Japanese Deny Shipping Rate Cutting On Wool

(Reuter's Service)

Sydney, September 20.—Referring to an allegation made by the London Manager of the Australian Government shipping line regarding the competition of Japanese shipping in the Australian wool-carrying trade, the local agent of a Japanese line denies rate-cutting and asserts that Japanese competition is no more objectionable than other foreign competition for wool cargoes. Other companies suggest that if forced to reduce the wool freights they could possibly make up the loss by increasing meat freights, for which Japanese ships are unsuitable owing to their lack of cold storage.

Criminals Here Are Active Over Week-End

Unusual activity of a criminal nature was reported throughout the Settlement over the weekend. Three cases of armed robbery, in one of which two men were seriously wounded, occurred.

Two robbers, armed with pistols, entered an exchange and cigarette shop at 469 Alabaster Road leaving a third member of their gang posted at the mouth of an alleyway nearby. The two robbers frightened the occupants of the shop by brandishing their weapons and helped themselves to banknotes to the value of $75. Upon leaving with their loot they fired a parting shot into the floor of the premises.

One of the shop assistants followed the robbers along Alabaster Road, blowing a police whistle as he ran. The thief who was guarding the alleyway shot at him as he went by wounding him seriously in the jaw and in the wrist. The robbers ran along Winchester Road to North Soochow Road, across North Thibet Road and into the Woo Toong Foong alleyway in Chapei. At the Thibet Road bridge they were chased by a Chinese police constable on duty there who emptied two rounds of ammunition after their fleeing figures. They retaliated with shots from their own weapons and one bullet found its mark in a pedestrian.

The Chapei police assisted the Settlement authorities in a thorough search which, however, availed nothing, the robbers making a clean getaway.

The injured shop assistant was taken to St. Luke's Hospital where it was found he had received bullet wounds in the lower jaw and left wrist. The pedestrian who was taken to Shantung Road Hospital was shot through the head. Both men are seriously wounded.

A second hold-up was reported from 88 Sinza Road which premises are occupied by Mr. Ferguson and his family who live in the upper portion of the house, and Wong Yen Sung, a compradore who, with his family, resides in the lower portion. Four armed men entered the compradore's quarters Saturday night and demanded $5,000. Upon failing to get this amount they ransacked the place, turning out drawers, boxes, etc. and making off with banknotes and jewelry valued at $268. No alarm was raised until the robbers were on their way due to the fact that one of the gang held down the compradore and prevented him from making any outcry or raising any alarm until his companions had made good their escape whereupon he himself fled, after stealing a gold finger ring and a gold ear pick from the compradore's daughter.

Still another robbery in which no shots were fired occurred at 3241 Seward Road when four men, two of whom were armed, entered an exchange shop and, after thoroughly frightening the occupants, stole $383, of which $120 was the property of a customer. So frightened were the occupants of the shop that, despite the fact that a Chinese police constable was on duty not twenty yards distant, the robbers got away and it was not until ten minutes after they quit the premises that the trembling shopkeeper reported the matter to the nearby policeman.

GUARD BABY'S HEALTH IN THE HEAT.

The hot months are the most dangerous to children. The complaints of this season, which are cholera infantum, colic, diarrhoea and dysentery, come on so quickly that often a little one is beyond aid before the mother realises he is ill. The mother must be on her guard to prevent these troubles, or if they do come on medicine is of such aid to mothers during hot weather as is Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy. They regulate stomach and bowels, cure indigestion, and constipation, relieve colic, check diarrhoea, allay teething pains, dispel colds and croup, banish worms, and are absolutely safe. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 60 cents the vial, post free from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kiangse Road, Shanghai. Mother's greatest help and baby's friend are

A standard test for eyesight

Don't Short-Weight Yourself!

"I wouldn't let my grocer guess how heavy a pound is—not when I was paying."

But if it weren't for the standards established and the regular inspection of scales and measures, you would go right on paying without knowing whether you were cheated or not.

Guessing and paying—just as you do with your eyesight. For there is an eyesight standard too. An eye-examination is the standard for normal effective eyesight.

No comparison with what your friends see at the same distance will do anything but mislead you. You cannot see through their eyes nor they through yours. But by examining your sight we can tell if it is up to standard and if not, we will prescribe glasses to bring it up to standard. Test with the one standard that can tell you the truth. Have your eyes examined now!

YUE CHONG COAL COMPANY

25-26 North Soochow Road, Shanghai.

Telephones: North 651 and North 1717

We have been carrying on our business for more than thirty years and have been enjoying the confidence and commendation of the public. We are selling the coals of the best Chinese coal mines, such as, Dah Doong Coal, Ching Hsing Coal, Chung Hsing Coal, Tung Woo Coal, Houchi Coal, Liu Ho Kow Coal as well as Saghaline Coal. The Shanghai-Hangchow-Ningpo Railway, Compagnie des Messageries Maritimes, and Italian, American, French and Chinese Warships, Cotton Mills and other industrial factories have been purchasing great quantities of coal from us, and our annual sale amounts to over 200,000 tons.

Our coal is best selected and at moderate prices, and consumers may rely on us in obtaining the right kind of coal as named on their order, and that is why our business has been increasing steadily.

Orders from foreign warships are especially welcome. It is understood that warships used to purchase coal from the merchants who are not belonging to the coal trade and who obtain their coal after passing many hands. These merchants do not understand what is the right coal for warships, who are liable to be cheated by these merchants. Such practices bring serious damage to the names of our Chinese coal mines.

We are doing business on thoroughly honest basis in a measure to preserve the name of our Chinese coals as well as to push our business. We guarantee the satisfaction of foreign steamships who may place orders with us.

GEORGIAN REBELS CONSOLIDATE IN MOUNTAINS NOW

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, September 20.—The Georgian Legation states that the Georgian insurgents are consolidating their positions in the mountains in eastern and western Georgia and the districts of Lechgum and Ratcha.

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Paris, Sept. 20.—Telegrams from Tiflis, capital of Georgia, say that the Soviet troops, after capturing the city, executed 600 leading citizens and imprisoned many others.

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, September 21.—The Agenda Committee yesterday discussed the joint British, French and Belgian resolution inviting the Council of the League to watch attentively events in Georgia and to seize the opportunity to enable the country to return to a state of peace

All the speakers expressed sympathy with the Georgia struggle for liberty, but General Freire d'Andrade (Portugal) and Mr. Hofmeyr (South Africa) expressed surprise that the resolution submitted was identical to one voted two years ago. They asked what the Council had done in the meantime, and suggested modifications in the text in order to conform with the new circumstances.

Eventually a sub-committee, comprising Professor Gilbert Murray (Britain), M. de Brouckere (Belgium), M. Albert (France), Count Bonin Longare (Italy) and Mr. Macdonald (Canada), was appointed to consider the question.

It is understood that the subcommittee intends to suggest that the Assembly should propose to Russia mediation by states which have recognised both the Soviet and the independence of Georgia.

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, September 21.—Three thousand citizens participated in a public demonstration yesterday in connecting with the "War against War" movement. A procession, carrying banners declaring that only workers would ensure the peace of the world and demanding that the Governments and the League should intervene with regard to Georgia, marched to the Communal Hall. There was a lively scene outside, Communists shouting "Down with Georgia" and clamouring for the removal of a banner relating to Georgia. After the tumult, M. Paul Boncour, Mr. Charlton, M. La Fontaine and Italian and German delegates made speeches urging support of the League's peace efforts. Mr. Charlton expressed faith in the League's work and pleaded for the support of the workers of the world.

A resolution was adopted protesting against the piling up of armaments and demanding development of arbitration.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Sept. 21.—A telegram to the Georgian Legation states that in the districts of Zougdidi and Senaki and along the river Kodor thousands of insurgents have held up an advance of the Soviet troops, with which Communist detachments organised outside Georgia are fighting.

La Follette Opens Campaign In East For Presidncy

(Reuter's American Service)

New York, September 20.—The Progressive candidate for the Presidency, Senator la Follette, was enthusiastically received on the occasion of the opening of his campaign in the East here.

Only half of the 14,000 seats in Madison Square Garden were free; the others were sold at between 55 cents to $2.20. There were only a few empty seats. A crowd of 8,000 outside listened through amplifiers. The speech was also broadcast.

The result of the presidential election is at present regarded as a very open question.

Signs Italo-Swiss Pact On Arbitration

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, September 20.—Signor Salandra (Italy) announced in the Assembly of the League of Nations that an Italo-Swiss Treaty of General Arbitration was signed in Rome today. He said that it was the most extensive treaty of conciliation and peace yet concluded, providing for the pacific settlement of all conflicts without exception (cheers).

M. Motta, the Swiss President of the Assembly, was visibly moved, as he explained that all differences would be submitted to the International Court of Justice after other means of conciliation failed.

Little Progress In Ruhr Evacuation

(Reuter's Service)

Cologne September 20.—There has been little progress in the French evacuation of the Ruhr and of the bridgeheads during the week. The actual occupied area has not diminished though sundry villages have been evacuated and some prohibitions relaxed or withdrawn, including the ordinance prohibiting the passage of empty barges to Holland. Rhine shipping is now unrestricted.

MACLAREN IN ENGLAND

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Liverpool, Sept. 20.—Squadron Leader Maclaren arrived here today. He says that he will probably attempt another world flight next year if sufficient money can be raised for the enterprise.

SOVIET ENVOY TO REMOVE INTO OLD RUSS LEGATION

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, Sept. 20.—It is understood that the Soviet Envoy and party will remove their offices to the Russian Legation building next Monday. It is reported that the flag hoisting ceremony of the Soviet Embassy will be held in a few days.

B. W. A. Notes

A concert for the Marines, who are now in camp, will be given by the Musical and Dramatic Sections of the British Women's Association at the Racing Stables in Great Western Road, on Tuesday evening, the 23rd, at 9.00 p.m. The concert is to take place whether the weather be wet or fine, and any members of the Association who care to go are cordially invited to be present.

New Headquarters.—The new Headquarters will be ready for occupation on Thursday next, and it is hoped that members will find these comfortable rooms in the central district of great use to them. The entrance is the same as that of the C. P. O. S. on the left hand side of the Bank Building, facing the river; and members will be glad to learn that there are two lifts to take them to the rooms, which are situated on the fourth floor under the dome (409). The premises have all the amenities of an up-to-date women's club, and it is expected that in these pleasant conditions those British women, who have not yet joined, will do so now, and those members, who for some reason or another have not paid up their subscriptions, will remedy the omission as soon as possible.

Members of the Executive are often questioned as to what the aims and functions of this Association are, and for the benefit of those who wish to know, it is as well to set them down as follows: To promote and simplify cooperation among British women in the common welfare of their nation and their nationals, and to assist materially British women when the occasion arises; to provide a center where all may meet for the purposes of recreation and philanthropy, and where the stranger within our gates may find a welcome and a place to rest in, and where the shy and lonely may come into touch with their fellow nationals at any time.

The Hospital Aid Department of the British Women's Association acknowledge with many thanks the following contributions towards their work for wounded Chinese soldiers in the local hospitals: Lord Li Chang Mai, Taels, 100; Lady Li Ching Mai, $100; Mrs. J. H. McMichael, bundle of swabs, sponges, pads, etc.; Mrs. A. de Linde, 56 pads; Mrs. D. E. Abraham, old linen; Mrs. Keigwin, 25 gauze drains; "A Friend", parcel of old clothes.

A further assortment of hospital necessaries was sent out to the Red Cross Headquarters in Avenue Haig on September 19. This consisted of 31 coats, 600 bandages, 108 gauze pads, 37 absorbent pads, 116 swabs, 65 drains, 57 absorbent cotton packing, 10 many tail bandages.

The grateful thanks of the Association are also due to Mrs. R. E. Sedgwick, Mrs. V. G. Bowden, and Anonymous for bundles of papers and magazines to be distributed among the camps at Jessfield and in Great Western Road.

ROBERT HOTUNG RETURNING; TO FURTHER PEACE

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 20.—Sir Robert Hotung is leaving England. He will return to the Far East in a few days. He will possibly first visit Lisbon with the Governor of Macao, who has been conferring with the Portuguese Ambassador in London, before embarking on the Genoa for Hongkong, on October 7.

Sir Robert, interviewed by a representative of Reuter's Agency, said that the Hongkong Section at Wembley, particularly the silkworm exhibit, had been a pronounced success, and a popular feature of the exhibition. It is understood that Sir Robert has been approached unofficially to continue the Hongkong section.

When he returns Sir Robert hopes, if it should still be necessary, to resume his work of assisting in the restoration of peace and the establishment of unification in China. He said that the present situation in China was really one that might lead to an early and better chance of unification. Sir Robert emphasised that it was not an anti-foreign movement.

The thrill lies in our proficiency

What's Your Score

Exercise for health? Of course we do. But down in our hearts we know that the thrill lies in our proficiency—in making the best score and in landing the biggest string.

What don't we do to give ourselves that thrill?

We pinch our pocket-books for clubs, tackle, gear, equipment—all in order to increase our proficiency. Yet, if we stop to think a minute, we know that in golf, tennis, fishing, hunting, motoring—any outdoor pastime—defective eyesight will spoil our form and take the edge off our enjoyment.

We sigh for Roosevelt's guns—when we should be thinking of his glasses.

Even if you already wear glasses, have your eyes examined. Many who need special lenses for outdoors aren't aware of it. Perhaps another prescription would improve your game immensely.

To judge your distances, put sting in your strokes, land the fish, bag the game—to get from outdoors the thrill that outdoors owes you—have your eyes examined without delay.

Keds are made of firm, finely woven canvas. The soles are of tough, durable rubber. They are always well shaped—the details of finishing are done with skill learned by years of experience. Be sure you get real Keds and not a substitute for Keds.

If the name KEDS is not on the shoes, they are not real Keds.

Chinese Government Railways
Kiaochow Tsinan Line

The public is hereby informed that it is the policy of the Railway to purchase railway materials and supplies of the best quality at the lowest price. If merchants wish to transact business with this Railway, they are advised to offer goods of high quality and quote reasonable prices. Under no circumstances shall special gifts or rebates be given to the Railway purchasing agent or other agents of this Railway and no secret understandings shall be tolerated.

Ever since I took office as Managing Director, I have been informed of the above-mentioned practices adopted by different merchants in soliciting the business of this Railway. I really detest such business methods and have therefore put the matter under thorough investigation.

Recently I was greatly surprised to receive several letters from a certain company promising me a certain percentage taken out of their net profit as a gift if we gave them our orders. I have come to the conclusion that the rumour of offering an illegal commission to the staff of our Materials Department is not without foundation. it was really demoralising for this latter company to contemplate bribery under the disguise of such high-sounding terms as rebates and gifts, instead of doing business with us honestly.

We all know that rebates or gifts are nothing but another form of bribery. Morally, it lowers one's character and legally, both the giver and the receiver should be put under the penalty of the Law. During my administration of this Railway, I shall deadly fight against such dishonesty as bitter enemy and shall see that this virgin field not to be sowed with those undesirable seeds. Therefore let it be known to all whom it may concern that any merchant doing business with this Railway shall hereafter follow the proper course of business transaction and shall enter fair competition with other business men. On no account shall dishonest methods be tolerated which, I believe, will have an effect in the preservation of merchants' good name.

Local Millers Scanning The World Wheat Supply

America Has Excellent Crop; Increased Output From Reduced Acreage

BY GEO. W. MISSEMER

Everywhere at all times the eyes of the populace, at least that part of it closely, or even remotely, connected with the production of bread, are fixed upon the question of the supply, and particularly, the price of wheat. But nowhere and at no time has that interest been greater than it is at present in Shanghai on the part of those Chinese flour mill owners, who have not contracted for a local future supply. Incidentally, of course, quite a considerable number of local importing firms having important flour and wheat connections, particularly in America and Australia, but also in Canada and Manchuria are interested in this subject.

As is well known, last year there was an exceptional import of wheat and flour to the Far East. The import into Japan was abnormal last year owing to the earthquake, and the incidental suspension of the import duty, for the 12 months ending May last the import having been 9.5 million "quarters" (a "quarter," as used in the wheat trade, means 480 pounds, or eight bushels) as compared with 1.7 million quarters during the preceding twelve months.

The import of wheat into China last year was exceptional also, but the import was not nearly so great as into Japan. The Chinese Customs Report shows that imports from the United States during 1923 were over 2,000,000 piculs, and some months back there was quite an available local stock of wheat. Now, however, with the uncertainties of the war, some of the Chinese millers are on pins and needles as to whether they shall place orders now or wait until they get closer to the danger line some months later. The factors that Chinese millers have to bear in mind are conditions in the wheat markets of the world generally, some of the more important details of which are the following, gleaned from the report recently issued by the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome, covering the "year" (the cereal year) ending with July 31, 1924.

FARMERS IN CLOVER

Last year the prices realised for wheat in America were so low as not to cover the cost of production. The result was that this year the American farmers, as also the Canadian farmers, considerably reduced their acreage. But the wheat farmers in the United States this year are in clover, because, quite different from most other parts of the world, they have been blessed with exceptionally good weather, so that although seven million less acres were sown to wheat this year than last year, the estimates of the current crop place the yield at over a hundred millions quarters as against 98 million quarters last year. In other words, there is a larger production from a considerably reduced area.

In Canada there was no exceptionally good harvest last year, but drought and other causes have reduced this year's yield to about 35 million quarters as against 59 last year.

The latest reports show that the net outturn of the wheat crop throughout the world this year will be much less than last year. This state of affairs is reflected in the prices, the world's average increase in prices during the last three months having been about 25 percent. The gold value of wheat at present is generally about fifty percent higher than it was in 1913. At that time wheat was considerably below the general average of articles as gauged by the price index comparing pre-war prices; now it is somewhat above the average. It is generally expected that the present price (in gold) will be fairly maintained at approximately the same level until next year.

AMERICA'S ADVANTAGE

The United States is in a much more favorable position to export this year than last year, despite the decreased acreage. America consumes yearly about 84 million quarters, the estimated yield is 101.8, leaving an exportable surplus from this year's crop of 18 million quarters, in addition to the reserve in the country from last year of about 10 million quarters. Last year, despite the heavy exports to the Far East, America only exported 15 million quarters. Canada on the other hand, shows up badly, the figures showing that she will have for export available only 21 million quarters as against twice that quantity actually exported last year.

The Argentine is coming through fairly nicely, with probably four million quarters more available to export that last year. India also will probably have eight million quarters more to export than last year. Russia has a famine on its hands in some districts and the maximum that can be expected from that quarter is about three million quarters, the same as last year, as compared with the annual average export of 20 millions before the war.

Australia, which supplied a considerable quantity of wheat to China last year, is having a fair year, and may probably be in a position to export even more than the quantity exported last year, about 10 million quarters.

It would appear, then, that there is little chance of any considerable orders being placed from China this year for Canadian wheat. There are some prospects of orders being placed in America and Australia, but the logical place for Shanghai to draw its wheat supply from is Manchuria, where, according to latest estimates, there will be a bumper crop, particularly in the North. A recent estimate prepared by the South Manchuria Railway Company's freight traffic office shows a crop of 600,000 tons this year against 250,000 tons last year.

WORLD MARKETS FOR COTTON ARE REPORTED QUIET

Importations Decrease For First Six Months Of Current Year

Washington, Aug. 19.—The flow of foreign cotton piece goods into the United States has declined from 115,384,890 square yards, valued at $25,905,551, in the first half of 1923 to 95,351,463 square yards, worth $20,348,259, during the first six months of 1924.

There is a decided lull in the Argentine cotton textile trade that can only be accounted for by the unwillingness to buy on the part of the public, which is reflected throughout the trade. This situation has been apparent since the beginning of the present year, but has recently become more accentuated. Business with the large cotton goods retailers has been slow and sales efforts have been made in the form of "sales" and "liquidations" in order to move stocks.

Importations of cotton textiles are considerably below those of 1923. Stocks on hand, while probably not more than normal, are considered fairly large, considering the present demand. English houses have been sending considerable quantities of cotton goods to local importers on consignment.

Of a total of 10,720 packages of cotton textiles of all classes imported during the month of June more than half, or 5,357 packages, came from Great Britain and only 991 packages from the United States. A total of 2,831 packages came from Italy during the month, while 686 and 452 came from Belgium and France, respectively.

TRADE SLACKENS IN MEXICO

Wholesale business in Mexico City gave evidence of slackening sales during June, especially in textiles, partially owing to seasonal causes but largely because the natural buying reaction which followed the revolution of December-March has now spent itself, and purchases now being made are to satisfy current demands. Retail trade felt the numbing effect of the combined unfavorable conditions with sales confined largely to articles of absolute necessity.

Some concern is felt in the English market about the threat of the drouth in the Bombay Presidency. Then there also is the announcement of the new Japanese tariff raising duties to 100 percent on imports of articles which have been placed in the category of luxuries. This list of changes and uncertainties actually threatening or besetting the Lancashire cotton trade aptly illustrates the extensive world character of this trade and reveals the great need of British traders for stable normal international conditions.

Trade with China continues dull and merchants are not disposed to operate on their own account just now. South America and some of the Mediteranean outlets have taken moderate parcels upon comparatively favorable terms, but Manchester wholesalers are purchasing only what is absolutely necessary. The general attitude is now one of marking time.

UNCERTAINTY IN FRANCE

Uncertainty in French cotton manufacturing continues, although there is a slightly more optimistic feeling since the United Kingdom and France have reconciled their differences regarding the policy in the Ruhr district.

The depression noted last month in the Barcelona textile industry continues, but sales from fall and winter samples have caused a slightly better outlook in the cheaper lines of cotton goods.

The Commission of the Federal Economic Council which has been investigating the textile industry for some months past published a tentative report on the cause of the excessive prices prevailing in the industry. The commission finds the cost of raw material to be the leading factor in the prevailing high prices, but, contrary to expectations, cites the excessive taxes imposed as the second factor of importance. Textile manufacturers themselves maintain that their taxes at the present time are from eight to twelve times greater than those of the pre-war period.

The high interest rates and the absence of stocks of raw materials purchased during the time of inflation also tend to increase prices. Manufacturers believe that no price reductions can be brought about by the elimination of unprofitable lines. It is said that export sales are now made below inland prices in order to retain export market and obtain necessary foreign exchange.

The demand for cotton goods in Sweden was very small during the latter part of May and in June, and the early days of July showed no improvement. This slack demand is caused, among other things, by the cold weather in spring, which resulted in much smaller sales of cotton goods than generally at that time of the year. The principal reason, however, for the curtailment of operations in the Swedish cotton textile branch is to be found in the keen competition encountered from England, Czecho-Slovakia and the Baltic States. The tightness of money is also given as a contributing cause for the poor season.

The Chinese indent market has shown no activity. Inquiry is very scattered and clearances extremely poor. A general dullness prevailed at the auctions and speculators gave little support to prices, with dealers reporting very few orders from the interior. A total of 30,346 pieces was sold, nearly 5,000 pieces under last week's sales.

Cotton piece goods continue dull in India, and in the absence of demand prices are inclined to weakness. Although stocks are low dealers do not care about replenishment before clearing goods on hand. In country cloth prices are unchanged, but the offtake indicates a moderate improvement.

The favorable progress of the monsoon has put a more optimistic feeling into the piece market. Inquiries have come in from the large buying centers and it is believed that the market should show an upward tendency in the next few weeks. Retail demand has been good, but there is still a dullness in the wholesale demand. The Manchester market has been steady and the quotations have been from 5 to 7 per cent higher than current prices. It has been difficult to bring buyers up to the required quotations and a number of offers have been returned with requests for advances.

What's Changing Us?
What will History call this present age? It was the printing-press (wasn't it?), that changed our conditions of Life.
But the printing-press did its great work at a price. It definitely affected the eyesight of the race. This present era may well be called the Age of Eyestrain.
At first man's average range of vision was 40 feet and over. Then, to read the first big black letters it was occasionally pulled in to arm's length. Today small type taxes our eyes endlessly at an average range of only 14 inches.
But science has kept pace with this growth of pointing, finding measures for the relief of eyes. For what is more important to happiness and success than efficient eyesight? Fancied ability to see is not a test of vision. Eyestrain headache, nervousness, overtaxed eye-muscles, bloodshot eyes and other discomforts. With glasses you are protected—your eyes properly adjusted, nervestrain relieved. A complete eye-examination by the O.I.C. is the one way to be sure.

"Don't Be Satisfied With A 10 Percent World" Says Barron

"Don't be satisfied with a 10 percent world," said Clarence W. Barron to a Convention of Leather Men.

"Look at your maps and see how many wide spaces there are without any cattle.

"Think of 447,000,000 people in China, ambitious for honest government—for good roads—for motor cars and railways.

"Think of the 1,600,000,000 people in the world who are consuming not more than 10 percent of which they might consume.

"The trade of this world can be multiplied by 10—there is a fact for pessimists to dwell upon until they are cured of pessimism."

Japan Will Return Alien Properties To Their Owners

Property confiscated from Germans in Japan at the outbreak of the World War will be returned, in part, to the owners.

This announcement was made a few days ago in Tokio by the Special Property Control Bureau in the Home Department. The entire proposition covers a return of approximately Tls. 6,300,000, chiefly to German nationals.

Germans and any other enemy subjects who rendered services to Japan will be returned the entire amount of their property, either attached or confiscated at the time of the opening of hostilities. Such property as was confiscated in Tsingtao and South Sea islands formerly under German occupation also will be returned in the same manner as property in Japan proper.

SUITS LONG PENDING

The decision grew out of the fact that there seems to be little chance for a solution in the long-pending damage suits in connection with the World War. Some of these cases still are pending in various district courts in Japan and in London, and it is reported they have become more complicated rather than nearing a solution.

The two Governments, German and Japanese, held conversations on the subject, and a compromise recently was reached between the German Embassy in Tokio on the one hand and the Department of Justice and Foreign Office on the other.

TO BE SETTLED LATER

The decision grew out of the indemnification pending between German and Japanese nationals totals Y.500,000. This sum will be deducted from the entire amount of property under Japan's control, which is estimated at Tls. 12,200,000.

The payments on this return of property will begin at once, it was said at the Tokio Home Department. The other payments involved in suits will be made in the course of settlement of those suits, it was said.

Just What Is America Going To Do About It?

A FEW DAYS AGO the United Press sent us a choice bit of propaganda with the label of the League of Nations on it to the effect that "the United States was largely responsible for the arming of warring factions in China, because of the refusal of the United States, so far to ratify the treaties proposed by the League of Nations for restricting the manufacture of munitions." If this news item which carried the Geneva date line marked September 16 really was inspired by the League it causes us to have less respect for that organisation and the methods which it uses than we had previously. It is true that the United States has not ratified the League's proposal to restrict the manufacture of munitions, which is nothing but a paper doctrine that has had no effect whatsoever, as anyone can determine who will go to the trouble of visiting any of the ammunition dumps back of the lines on either side in the present Chinese war. It even is not necessary to go so far as that: Right here in Shanghai at the Shanghai North Railway station will be found cases of munitions containing the brands of manufacturing plants located within the boundaries of several prominent members of the League of Nations, as well as of some who are not members—but not including the United States.

But for those who really are interested in getting at the truth of the matter of arms shipments to China, we would again refer to the minutes of the Washington Conference. There it will be found that only two nations of the nine which participated in that meeting took any serious and conscientious interest in prohibiting arms shipments to China. These two nations were the United States of America and the British Empire. And to prove that these two nations were sincere in their actions, neither waited for unanimous decision of the other Powers, but both went ahead and passed laws restricting their own nationals from engaging in this business. It is not necessary to refer to the larger work of the United States in the matter of general arms limitation which is well known everywhere, but it may be of interest to know that America was the first nation anywhere to take an interest in this subject. For many years the United States has had an embargo upon the sale of arms by American citizens to the warring factions of Central and South America and undoubtedly this has had a considerable effect in bringing peace to that section.

Unfortunately all of the propaganda respecting the position of the United States in connection with the present Chinese civil war has not been limited to the arms question. Reuters brought us a message which appears in today's issue of The China Press which purports to be a reprint of an editorial from the London Sunday Times which spoke of "America's hesitancy to mediate" in the present Chinese struggle "hence the hope is expressed that the British Government is not merely watching events, but that it intends to seize the first opportunity to terminate the disintegrating and destructive process at the present time working throughout the whole of China."

And if we desire further information regarding the attitude of the United States on this subject, the Japanese press also apparently has the information. The Japanese Kokumin (nationalist organ) says, "Behind General Wu Pei-fu lurks a certain power and it must be remembered that the Peking Foreign Office is presided over by Dr. Wellington Koo of pro-American proclivities ..... In such circumstances it is imperative that while pursuing the policy of non-interference in Chinese affairs, the Japanese Government should closely follow the developments and prevent others from interfering." bso.

There is no intention here to criticise other nationals for their views of America's position in respect to the China situation. The cause for most of the criticism rests in the fact that the United States, while pursuing a general position of neutrality, has not yet given out any official statements of its position. There has been some brief newspaper comment supposedly inspired by the State Department in Washington on the subject of "neutrality" but not yet have we seen anything of an official character bearing on the subject. It may be good politics for the Administration in Washington to withhold its views pertaining to its reactions in respect to what has happened in China since the close of the Wasington Conference in February, 1922, but if the delay is too long it naturally will lead to the belief now being expressed in other lands that the United States either has some ulterior motive or has no views at all on the subject.

The United States undoubtedly is interested in the China situation, otherwise there wouldn't be a dozen American men-of-war in the Shanghai harbor. America's attitude on the subject is expressed most eloquently in the policy of strict neutrality which is being followed, but what is needed is a statement, officially by either the Secretary of State or President Coolidge regarding the American policy and of more importance the American program for the future. Such a statement would not only have great effect in clarifing the situation from the standpoint of China's relations with the powers at this time, but it would also have the effect of stopping propaganda from other quarters regarding the attitude of the United States.

Russian Child Hawkers

MANY strange things have emerged out of the welter of the late war in Europe but none is more singular than the spectacle of Russian children in Shanghai peddling trifles of no earthly use to any one as a thin disguise for what practically amounts to mendicancy pure and simple. It will be remembered that a few weeks ago, the daily and nightly appearance of these luckless children in the streets of the International Settlement culminated in some strong letters to the local newspapers, whereupon the police investigated the most flagrant cases and submitted a report to the Refugee Relief Committee in response to the latter's request. This report disclosed the significant fact that the children invariably were supporting several adults, who were decidedly reluctant to have the children removed from the streets. The attitude they took resolved itself into this—that they could not be expected to sacrifice their only source of livelihood in the absence of jobs for themselves, forgetting that they, as a class, are unfitted for jobs open for foreigners in Shanghai, even assuming that vacancies are available. A few charitably inclined residents, however, interested themselves in these children, and through their good offices, the wherewithal was obtained for the maintenance of the children in the school of the Russian Confraternity in Avenue Foch. The director of the school made the requisite accommodations, with the help of the funds thus obtained. The Race Club, with its accustomed generosity, contributed $100 to the institution and promised a further $100 every month provided the child hawkers were taken off the streets and kept off. The results, however, have scarcely corresponded with expectations.

What is the position today in regard to these miserable children who are denied the birthright of every child? The attitude of the parents has brought about a negation of the efforts of the Committee and others to help the children. The parents still withhold permission to remove the children off the streets with a callousness and tenacity worthy of a better object. Since moral suasion has not made much headway and since the parents are making it impossible for their unfortunate offspring to be placed in a school where they will be fed, housed, given medical attention, which some of them sorely need, and helped in other ways, the time obviously has come when we have to fall back on the Committee's original proposal to ask the police to enforce the law, remove the children from the streets and place them in the school where they would be looked after and given that protection which has been denied them by a trick of fate. From the police point of view, it is naturally repugnant to them to effect the arrest of helpless children. Some of the parents are said to have seen better days and have come to their present parlous plight more through misfortune than through any fault of their own. It is felt, however, that the best thing to do in the circumstances is to take the children to court and thus obtain legal authority for their being placed in the school from which they are now, curiously enough, barred by the very people who, in ordinary circumstances, ought to be the first to welcome the prospect of a shelter for their flesh and blood. A start has been made by the police in the case of the two children who were brought up in the Mixed Court yesterday before the British Assessor and remanded for the Russian Assessor. We understand that if the police fail in the case, they intend to bring on another case until a satisfactory ruling is obtained, which line of action will be generally endorsed by the foreign community.

EXCERPTS FROM GREAT WRITERS

MY CASTLE

I wish you could see my castle. It is a wonderful place.

It is old, so old, that the historians do not know when it was built. A place is not really a home unless it be old. One might as well be in a hotel as in a new house.

It has grown; that is more accurate than to say it was built.

Each generation had added to or taken from it, or altered it to suit.

It rises from the edge of a river. From the door you can step into a boat. A green sward on the other side slopes down to a lake. In the distance is the sea. Back to the north is a high mountain on which the snow lingers until June, making of the peak a white needle that is silver and glass and gold in the evening sun. A forest of ancient trees is in my park.

Entering my house you find yourself in a broad hall that leads to a central court where there are palms and a fountain and rose-trees.

The family room is very large, as spacious as a banquet-hall. At one end is a fireplace great enough to burn full-length cord-wood. Beside it are wide leathern seats. The ceiling is of oak and heavily beamed. Wide windows on all sides open down to the floor.

All the wall space throughout the castle is occupied with bookshelves. The house is one huge library. All the great books in the world are there. I have them all bound in uniform red limp leather, with my bookplate in gilt on each.

I have a stenographer who speaks ten languages and takes dictation as rapidly as I can give it. She has never made a mistake.

My study is full of light. A wood-fire crackles cheerily while I work. And every morning fresh roses or lilies or other soft-breathed flowers are on my desk.

There are twenty guest-chambers, and the castle is always full of company. The most clever, learned, and intelligent men and women of the whole world come to visit me.

There are also a bevy of young people of ginger-beer age, popping with enthusiasm, ever with me. I cannot do without them. In my dozen automobiles they make daily excursions round about.

Ships from the Orient can sail up the river to my door; and they bring strange stuffs and woods and spices, and amuse us with their different manners and speech.

It is always tempered summer where I live. The smell of oranges, of tamarinds, and of flowers is in the air continually.

I have a treasurer who supplies me with all the money I need, a secretary who attends to my correspondence, a tailor who looks after my clothing, a factor who manages the castle and estate, a chef who is a past master in cooking, a physician who attends to the health of all, a devout man who has taken holy orders in Mohammedanism, Buddhism, and Christianity, and who therefore keeps us supplied with juicy argument, a fool who amuses us when we are bored, and a wife who looks after my immortal soul.

Alas! I am afraid you can never find this place, much as I should love to have you come and see me.

For my castle is in Spain.

FOREIGN CONCESSIONS

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Dear Sir.—Certain foreigners are suggesting in sarcasm that if the Chinese really desire the abolition of the extraterritorial rights of foreigners in China, the present time is a fitting moment for such a discussion. To my mind the challenge is not unfair, and, as a matter of fact, the present situation makes the occasion an auspicious one for the presentation of the Chinese side of the case. I will, of course, admit that the foreigner also has a side which can be strongly presented at any time.

The flocking of refugees to Shanghai is an argument in favor of abolishing foreign concessions in China, for it calls attention to the chaos in the nation, a chaos at least partly caused by the foreigners' extraterritorial rights. On what arguments do I base this statement?

In the first place, the foreign concession is a breeding place for political plotting. Civil war in China is not unlikely so long as selfish and unscrupulous malcontents can use a foreign treaty port as their unmolested headquarters. The foreigners' extraterritoriality then is a generating place for trouble, for it gives protection to trouble-makers.

Secondly, the existence of the foreign concession has a demoralising effect on government in China because it is a continual temptation to Chinese officialdom to be dishonest and unfaithful. A Chinese official can squeeze and steal until he is discovered, and then run in safety with his booty, free to squander it on automobiles and sing-song girls: He finds immunity from prosecution within the foreign settlement. We read that Tsao Kun, for example, has moved some of his wives to his mansion in Tientsin, and that he is himself ready to move down whenever Peking seems safe no longer. In other countries as well wouldn't the existence of a few cities in which crooks and plotters were exempt from the demands of justice have a demoralising effect?

Thirdly, the foreign concession is a source of turmoil in China because the wealth of the community makes it a bone of contention among military leaders. Much of this wealth was stolen from the Chinese people. The chief cause of the present war is a desire of different provincial officials to control the rich prize, Shanghai. It is said, and no doubt with truth, that there are twenty-five Chinese in Shanghai each of whom could cash a check for ten million dollars or more. Militarists make war to see who shall supervise a community which has gathered such wealth. And much of this money would be distributed and invested throughout the nation instead of being piled up in Shanghai banks were it not protected by foreign extraterritoriality.

During the present trouble, I have moved from Chapei to the International Settlement for safety. I feel justified in doing this, for since the danger to my life and property comes partly as a result of the existence of the foreign settlement, as I have tried to prove, the settlement owes me certain protection. To prove how firmly I believe this I am quite willing and desirous that foreign settlements in China be abolished, and that next time there be no place in which I can benefit from the power of foreign protection. For when the foreign settlements no longer harbor political plotters and war makers, no longer demoralise the Government by holding out a place of immunity to dishonest officials, and no longer glitter as a tempting prize in the eyes of military leaders, there will be less occasion for danger to the citizen of China.

Do you belong to the Envy-Grouches!

You cannot afford a fine car, so you criticise those who pretend to afford it.

Your home is not as expensive as some of your friends; so you hesitate to invite them to share your hospitality, and lose much happiness.

As if your friendship or theirs were bound by your earthly possessions!

In the homes of your friends who are more well to do, you ruin your chance of enjoyment by constant comparison between their homes and your more humble one.

Perhaps, when you have been entertained in more expensive and better furnished homes than yours, you have experienced a feeling of regret and sorrow, maybe envy, as you opened the door of your little home on your return.

Are you not ashamed of such a mean spirit?

Your own home, if it is the best you can afford should be considered by you as a haven of rest and comfort and happiness.

How your home compares in material or adornment should not be the basis of value to you, for home is where the heart is, and takes more than wealth and worldly goods to make happiness.

It is the most durable of all decorations, lasting for years with freshness unimpaired, whereas wall-papers deteriorate from the first day by fading and accumulating dust and dirt.
Hall's Distemper is a thorough disinfectant, and is applied directly upon the wall, forming a hard surface, from which dust and dirt may be "spring-cleaned" by lightly sponging with warm water.

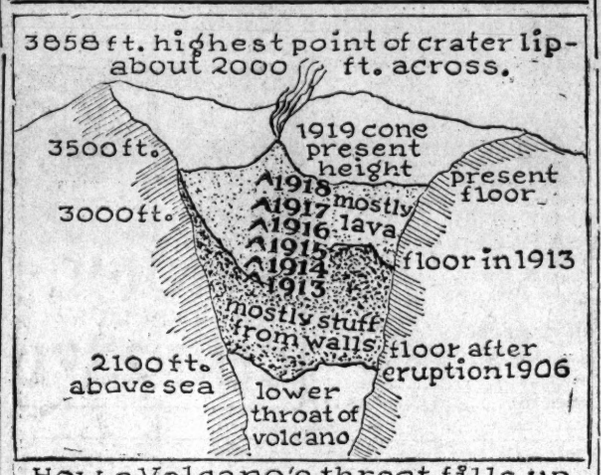
In The Throat Of Vesuvius



How a Volcano's throat fills up

BY GARRETT P. SERVISS,

I haven't seen Vesuvius since its last great eruption, in 1906. But, having once been close to such a monster when it is raging, henceforth, one keeps an eye on it metaphorically. In a number of the "Geographical Review" I find a summary account of the behavior of Vesuvius from 1906 to the present and on a sectional view of its crater there presented I based the accompanying picture, which shows the gigantic throat in vertical section, graphically illustrating the manner in which an intermittently active volcano fills up its throat between blow outs.

After the eruption of 1906, Prof. Matteucci and others descended the smoking and crumbling walls of the crater, as soon as they were sufficiently cooled, and explored the still heated "floor," collecting volcanic gases from the steaming vents. The bottom at that time was, an irregular plain, some 2,200 feet above sea-level and 2,000 feet below the highest part of the rim.

This vast chasm gradually filled up with material falling in avalanches from the walls, but always there seems to have remained a somewhat sunken spot, which indicated the place where the volcano's hot breath would eventually find an issue together with more or less molten lava.

The material continued to pile up until, in 1913, its very irregular upper surface had assumed the outline shown in the section. In that same year a small eruptive mouth, or "mouth of fire," formed in the hollow place at an elevation many hundred feet above the level of the floor of 1906.

From that time on, a series of small eruptions occurred year after year. These continued to raise the level of the floor; in other words, to fill up the crater, as is shown by the gradual rise of the marks indicating the position of the fire pits in 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917, 1918, 1919—the cone of eruption in the last-named year attaining the greatest height, about 3,590, feet above sea-level, and about 2,000 feet above the lowest part visited by Matteucci in 1906.

The present level of the floor is 1,000 meters (3,280 feet) above sea, but the eruptive cone has disintegrated, dropping considerably below its maximum height, attained in June, 1919. But the cone alternately grows and sinks as successive minor eruptions occur, with more or less quiet intervals. In 1920, 1921 and 1922 considerable changes in the cone took place and an outpouring of lava from its rent side in October, 1921, left a layer of fresh lava over the whole floor.

Thus the great accumulation stopping up the throat of Vesuvius goes on growing, and some time or another we shall, no doubt, have to read of another devastating outbreak, when the pent-up forces have gathered so much strength that they could blow the top off the mountain, or split its vast flank asunder, if an easier way of escape were not opened.

DRESS

By Mary Marshall

The Eyeshade Bandeau is America's Contributor to Smart Tennis Fashions

Real prettiness does not seem to be one of the assets of most women tennis players. And lately we have been wondering why it was that the girls who win silver cups and things for swimming are so much oftener good to look upon than the girls who win tennis trophies.

Undoubtedly attractive, Suzanne Lenglen is certainly not one of the beautiful or even pretty women of her race. But she was not too absorbed in the technique of her game to overlook the technique of dress, and Americans have taken many suggestions from her and other French women tennis players in the matter of dressing attractively for the court. After her visit to this country the Lenglen bandeau became known from ocean to ocean.

And now it is interesting to observe that an American tennis player is setting a fashion in England—a fashion which will doubtless go across the channel. Helen Wills, you know, wears an eyeshade bandeau, which has the undoubted advantage over the bandeau of Suzzanne in that it shields the eyes from the flare of the sun as well as keeping the hair in position.

More than one clever French tennis player chooses a hat instead of a bandeau on the tennis court. Quite striking was the effect recently of a bright red kasha hat to match the leather belt worn with the white sport frock.

Meantime there is an ever increasing disposition on the part of French women to go hatless. Of course they are not so free in this regard as many American women are, but it has been quite customary at some of the French resorts this summer to spend certain morning hours on the beach hatless. This way comes greater excuse for carrying a parasol.

PICNIC MENUS

Many a housewife who finds no trouble in devising dainty and attractive menus for the home table declares herself feazed when it comes to the preparation of the picnic basket. Yet it is not a difficult undertaking when one gets on to the "pull of the ropes." Even in the home meals there must be forethought to see that all necessary materials are on hand. Even more so is this essential in putting up luncheon, for half the pleasure of a picnic depends on the efficiency of its commissary department, and any serious oversight when one is twenty miles from a lemon or any other desired edible is a misfortune hard to bear.

Picnic luncheons should vary according to the prospective stage setting and the mode of journey thither. If the party is to motor, sail or drive to its destination, with plenty of room for hampers and accessories, the bill of fare may be much more varied and comprehensive than when one goes on trolley or wheel or expects to tramp to the picnic ground. In the latter case it is necessary to go in light marching order, everything as compact as possible, and things must be stowed away in boxes instead of baskets, that may be thrown away when the meal is finished.

TODAY'S GOOD RECIPES

Cherry Sherbet

One quart of sour cherries, one pound of sugar, one quart of water. Boil the sugar and water together for fifteen minutes. Stone the cherries, add them to the syrup, and stand aside until perfectly cold. Press through a very fine sieve, freeze, and add the beaten white of one egg, stir in, and repack.

Pineapple Sherbet

Two large pineapples or one quart can, one and one-half pounds of sugar, juice of two lemons, one quart of water. Pare the pineapples, cut them and remove the cores, or the pineapple may be grated around them. Boil the sugar and water together for five minutes, take it from the fire, add the grated pineapples and the juice of the lemons. Strain through a cloth, pressing hard to get all the juice. Freeze and add one beaten egg white, and repack.

Frozen Custard

Beat two eggs and one cup sugar until well mixed, then add two tablespoons cornstarch which has been mixed with a little cold milk. Add all to one quart of hot milk in a double boiler. Cook for fifteen minutes. Cool, add one-half teaspoon salt and one-half teaspoon vanilla extract and freeze. Half a cup of fruit chopped fine may be added when custard is partly frozen.

19 trips around the world!

A STUDEBAKER Big-Six, built in 1918, recently completed 475,000 miles in service—a distance equivalent to 19 trips around the world!

The long life of this particular car is in a measure typical of all Studebaker cars. There are scores of Studebakers that have traveled more than 100,000 miles—and which are still rendering satisfactory service to their owners.

During Studebaker's 72 years in business, two ingredients—fine materials and careful workmanship—have been demanded in all its products. These qualities are today responsible for the endurance and long life of Studebaker motor cars.

Turned down again! Reason—only one arm. He finds it difficult to get a job because industrial efficiency demands that there be a complete man at every machine. Yet the successful applicant is frequently much less fitted for his work than the one-armed man, for employment managers are hiring "one-eyed" workers without knowing it. In America there are twenty-five million people who don't realize that they need glasses. Call them "one-eyed," for two eyes which do not see properly may be of no more use than one.

If you are an employer have your employees' eyes examined without delay.

If you are an employee and your employer has not done this have your eyes examined at once.

Chicherin Says League Is Hostile To The Soviet

Declares That Recent Joint Resolution Interferes With Her Affairs

(Reuter's Service)

Moscow, Sept. 21.—In an interview with a representative of the Rosta News Agency, M. Chicherin complained that Imperialistic countries were conducting a general offensive against the Soviet and that they were using the League of Nations in that connection. He declared that the joint resolution of the British, French and Belgian Delegations at Geneva was a flagrant case of interference in the internal affairs of the Soviet, inasmuch as Georgia was a free and voluntary associate of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. M. Chicherin said that the League of Nations had passed over silently the events in India, Syria, the Sudan and China but was only too ready to pass resolutions hostile to the sovereignty of the Soviet.
